Michael L. Miller earned his BFA from Kutztown University and MFA from the Maryland Institute, College of Art in Baltimore, Maryland. His work has been featured in exhibits at the Fleisher Art Memorial, The Germantown

Academy Arts Center, The Abington Art Center, the Susquehanna Art Museum and Delaware Center for the Contemporary Arts. Over the past ten years, he has coordinated over three dozen collaborative murals together with hundreds of people from many community organizations in the greater Reading area. He is currently an art teacher in the Wyomissing Area School District.
